

PRINTING WITH FRIENDS

Printing with Friends runs as an informal untutored group that meets together on Friday afternoons on an ad hoc basis for printmaking. Use your own printmaking methods, techniques and materials, including the printing press if required and authorised. Participants learn from each other, share their experiences and enjoy the company of fellow artists in an informal atmosphere.

Contact Karen at the Colour Circle to register your interest and for further information:

www.thecolourcircle@gmail.com

